A R T I S T

Furb is a versatile artist influenced by Rap, Pop, Folk, and Rock.

This musical eclecticism, combined with a realistic writing style, unveils an enigmatic, dark, and romantic universe that immerses us in the depths of human emotions.

Originally from the South-West of France, he began performing on stage in 2011, while simultaneously releasing several mixtapes and solo EPs, accompanied by YouTube freestyles.

A wanderer, he founded several collectives through artistic and friendly encounters, including "La 33ème mesure" in Bordeaux in 2012, and "Le Désordre," a rap group he formed in 2013 in Pau with four other members. It was with this group, characterized by both dark and festive tones, that he performed on stage and worked on projects until 2019.

Since then, Furb has expanded his musical range and now incorporates instruments on stage to complement his writing. With his guitar or piano, he solemnly invites us to delve into his personal journey and intimate reflections. He returns to the stage with a new project designed specifically for live performances, evolving with each show. This developmental writing, ahead of studio recordings, goes against the current trends of music consumption, placing the live experience back at the forefront.

The first single from this project was released in 2024.
